Next Ad Council Meeting

Monday, May 13th

7 pm

⁶ "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" ³⁷ He said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind."
³⁸ This is the greatest and first commandment. ³⁹ And a second is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'

²⁴ But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. ²⁵ They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, ²⁶ but when they went in, they did not find the body. ²⁷ While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. ²⁸ The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. ²⁹ Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, ³⁰ that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again." ³¹ Then they remembered his words, ³² and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. ³³ Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. ³⁴ But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. ³⁵ But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

L: This is the Word of God for the people of God P: Thanks be to God.

Time with Children -

This is our commitment to Jesus' command, "Let the little children come to me."

Proclaim God's Word -

We hear the Word of God through Jesus Christ. He speaks in scripture, music, proclamation, and through the sacraments. Reading and preaching of God's Word stands at the center of worship. The power of God's Word comes not from the ink and paper or the liturgist and preacher, but is inspired by the Spirit and now works in the community of faith to comfort, challenge, correct, inspire, and deepen the faith and life of God's people.

Offerings -

We present here an outward sign of the offering of ourselves and our service to the glory of God. The Bible encourages, as a minimum standard of giving, that we set aside 10% as a spiritual discipline that liberates us from the idolatry of money. If you are a guest, please do not feel obligated to participate - we are just happy that you are here!

Who believes what we've heard and seen?

Who would have thought God's saving power would look like this?

²⁻⁶ The servant grew up before God—a scrawny seedling,
a scrubby plant in a parched field.

There was nothing attractive about him,
nothing to cause us to take a second look.

He was looked down on and passed over,
a man who suffered, who knew pain firsthand.

One look at him and people turned away.

We looked down on him, thought he was scum.

But the fact is, it was our pains he carried—our disfigurements, all the things wrong with us.

We thought he brought it on himself,

that God was punishing him for his own failures.

But it was our sins that did that to him,

that ripped and tore and crushed him—our sins!

He took the punishment, and that made us whole.

Through his bruises we get healed.

We're all like sheep who've wandered off and gotten lost.

We've all done our own thing, gone our own way.

And God has piled all our sins, everything we've done wrong,
on him, on him.

⁷⁻⁹ He was beaten, he was tortured,
but he didn't say a word.

Like a lamb taken to be slaughtered and like a sheep being sheared, he took it all in silence.

Justice miscarried, and he was led off—

and did anyone really know what was happening?

He died without a thought for his own welfare, beaten bloody for the sins of my people.

They buried him with the wicked,
threw him in a grave with a rich man,

Even though he'd never hurt a soul or said one word that wasn't true.

¹⁰ Still, it's what God had in mind all along,
to crush him with pain.

The plan was that he give himself as an offering for sin so that he'd see life come from it—life, life, and more life.

And God's plan will deeply prosper through him.

¹¹⁻¹² Out of that terrible travail of soul,
he'll see that it's worth it and be glad he did it.

Through what he experienced, my righteous one, my servant,
will make many "righteous ones,"

as he himself carries the burden of their sins.

Therefore I'll reward him extravagantly—

the best of everything, the highest honors—

Because he looked death in the face and didn't flinch, because he embraced the company of the lowest.

He took on his own shoulders the sin of the many,
he took up the cause of all the black sheep.
